HORTICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

To keep pace with the growing interest in practical Horticulture, and to comply with frequent appeals frem all parts of the country for information of a practical character on the subject, we have engaged the services of a person who is experienced in rural affairs to write in a lucid style a serice of articles on the Management of Small Farms, Fruit and Vegetable Culture, and how to make them ray, giving general and specific directions from planting to the ultimate disposal of the crops. Of late years, there has been a lucrative business carried on by unprincipled men, in selling worthless and old plants under new names to the inexperienced. The Tribuno names to the inexperienced. The Tribune will be always ready to guard the farmer against any such imposition that comes within
